14. (Unclassified - GLC) J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called on two matters. In the first instance he asked for any information which we might have on a Miami organization by the name of "Friendship House" which has a function relating to Cuban refugees. Sourwine said that a man associated with this organization whose first name was Oscar, was the first person to debrief [REDACTED]

On the second matter he asked if we had any information about Fidel Castro's infatuation with a young American member of the Venceremos Brigade whom he took to a studio where he had several pictures made with her. I told him I would look into these and be back in touch with him.
